

Heber Valley Arts Council Presents The "Arts Sampler"

10-22-97

The Heber Valley Arts Council will present the "Arts Sampler" on Nov. 1 at 7:30 p.m. to introduce itself to the community. Two of the participating divisions for the sampler are the choral division and the dance division of the council. This weeks article will focus on these arts.

The Heber Valley Chorale, a group recently organized by the Heber Valley Arts Council, has been diligently preparing for their performance in the Arts Sampler. Four selections, in contrasting musical moods, will be presented by them that evening. In the first piece, entitled "What Will the World Be Like Tomorrow?", flowing phrases lend beauty to a message of hope.

In the second choral presentation, the choir will give voice to Ringwald's musical arrangement of the familiar statement "No Man is an Island". Always providing a stirring and meaningful philosophic commentary, this straightforward number shows strong phrasing and movement leading to a peaceful climax. Very close harmonies, along with key changes and contrasting movement of parts will then be featured in a haunting song called "Their Hearts Were Full of Spring". The chorale will end with a unique arrangement based on the powerful and familiar melody of "America the Beautiful". This beloved song will provide a fitting conclusion to the performance of this sterling group of musicians.

The Choral Division of the Arts Council would like to invite vocalists interested in participating in future choral events to contact Charlene Hicken at 654-0430. The next planned presentation will be "The Messiah" and will feature the Heber Valley Chorale, soloists and an audience sing-in.

The dance department is presenting a sampling of three different dance forms that are considered "fine art". First, is an excerpt from a character piece to Aaron Copland's "Buckaroo Holiday" which was performed originally for the Heber Park rededication this summer by the Children's Ballet Conservatory. This group is under the direction of Katie Prisbrey. They will also be performing a classical ballet piece which will be presented again later as part of "An Olde English Christmas Concerto" on Dec. 12 and 13 at the Midway Town Hall. Both pieces are choreographed by Tracy Taylor, Associate Director of the conservatory. Jenny Mair and her students will be performing a jazz piece to Janet Jackson's "Rhythm Nation".

In the future, the Arts Council hopes to entertain and educate the public on true dance art forms. Each dance form has established "rules" that must be followed to be legitimate. For instance, classical ballet is an art form that originated in the 1700s. There are two known methods with developed techniques that cannot be discarded for more comfortable and unstructured methods and still be considered fine art. The Arts Council believes that education is important in the development of dance projects in the valley. Future workshops for all dance students in the Heber Valley will include outside dance professors from both BYU and the University of Utah to teach classes and inform students on what training is required for dance scholarships to their particular colleges. The Council feels its obligation to the community is to offer correct information for students and their parents to help them as they continue to develop in the art of dance.

We would like to remind all visual artists interested in exhibiting their work at this event to contact Gloria Montgomery at 654-0528. We hope to see you at the Arts Sampler!

Claim Your Old
Pictures That Appeared in The Good Old Days

Whitaker, cooking, wood carving, public speaking, Scout badge, Tenderfoot, Second Class; B. J. Remund, public speaking, Eagle rank.

Area Artist's Painting in National Exhibit

Scout badge, cooking; Jamie Olson, Scout badge; Brandon Hall, cooking, swimming, canoeing; Justin May, canoeing, motorboating, home repairs; Brian Gertsch, camping, lifesaving, canoeing; Jacob Hall, canoeing, cooking; Clayton Hansen, camping, canoeing; Seth Kelson, emergency preparedness; Joey Probst, camping; Doug Summer, canoeing; Berkley Probst, Scout badge; Tyler Farrell, Scout badge, Tenderfoot.

Midway Fourth, Troop #274:

Kelly Christensen, Scoutmaster; Connie Tatton, Blazer leader — Phillip Hansen, first aid; Brady Hales, first aid; Jeffrey Welch, first aid; Derick Anderson, first aid; Michael Hewlett, first aid; Greg Fillmore, first aid; Jeremy Nelson, personal management; Harv Van Wagoner, pioneering; Joe Murff, camping; Jon North, sports, drafting, gold palm; Shane Stroud - Life rank.

Wallsburg, Troop #219:

Rohn Hortin, Scoutmaster; Roy Smith, Blazer leader — Andrei Bigney, home repair, swimming, camping, emergency preparedness, Star rank; Preston Boren, swimming; Corey Boyden, swimming; Jeff Carlson, citizenship in the nation; Ryan Gardner, lifesaving, basketry; Rocky Gardner, swimming, Star rank; Nick Givens, swimming, camping, Star rank; Josh Keller,

Heber Valley Arts Council Presents Art Sampler

29 Oct 1997

Art and theater, as well as choral, instrumental, and dance arts, will be represented at the A Sampler on Nov. 1 at 7 p.m. at the Wasatch High School.

Shauna Bennett, Director of Theater Arts, has arranged for scenes from the upcoming musical "Li'l Abner" to be sampled on the evening of Nov. 1. The musical is directed by Leah Currentind Laurie Turnblom and will be presented in its entirety on Nov. 7, 8, and 10 at the high school.

The Arts Council plans in the future to encourage the development of community theater and also to bring outside productions to our valley. Another goal is to provide educational theater workshops. Anyone interested in helping achieve these goals is invited to contact Shauna Bennett at 657-1355.

An art exhibit for the Sampler has been arranged by Visual Arts Director, Gloria Montgomery, provide visual arts for the display.

Sue Villella, teacher at Wasatch High School has student silver-smith projects, as well as some of her own pottery to present for public view. Linda Schardine will be another exhibitor of pottery. Many of these artists will be available at the Arts Sampler to discuss their work and field questions.

Ms. Montgomery plans to provide a questionnaire for artists to determine how the Arts Council can best aid them in their pursuits and also to find artists willing to share talents in educational situations. Any artist still interested in being part of this display should contact Gloria Montgomery at 654-0528.

The Heber Valley Arts Council is excited to have this opportunity to introduce itself to the community. We hope to share the night of Nov. 1 with you!

Carving Winners: Pictured, Director of Smith's Food & ce; Davi Jo Staley, second place.

f $20 for first prize, $15 for second prize and $10 for third prize.

Pumpkins were judged on originality and the winners are, from R. Smith - First place - Makalia hell, Davi Jo Staley - second place, Stacey Smith - third place. from Central School - Zach Burton first place, Kyle Greene - second the same.

"It's important to communicate with children in a medium they understand and enjoy," said Tanner. "Fit For a King is a believable fan-

WOMAN'S

When Should You Get a Mammogram?

BY VICKI L. SELTZER MD
President The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists

A mammogram is an X-ray of the breasts used to detect breast cancer early, at its most curable stage. New technology in mammography screening allows detection of small tumors up to two years before they can be felt by you or your physi-